Evoco strengthens team

Zurich, 27 June 2018, Evoco Ltd, a leading pan-European investor in private equity portfolio transactions reinforces the team with Patrick Camenisch as Director of Finance and Operations and announces the promotion to Director of investment team member Lorenzo Gregory Sormani.

This expansion reflects the positive developments of Evoco AG.

Patrick Camenisch, Director of Finance and Operations, will take responsibility for financial, operational and legal matters of the Evoco funds and support the investment team in transaction projects. Patrick was COO at GZC Investment Management AG in Zug (Discretionary Alternative Investment Asset Manager) and worked at Swiss Capital Alternative Investment AG in Dublin / Zurich and at Ernst & Young.

He holds a master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Zurich, is a Swiss Certified Accountant (CPA) and a FRM Charterholder. Patrick speaks German, English, French, and Italian.

Lorenzo Gregory Sormani, investment team Director, joined Evoco in 2016. In his new role he will focus on leading transaction execution and actively promoting growth and value creation in our portfolio investments. Prior to Evoco, Lorenzo was a Senior Associate at McKinsey & Co. and Investment Analyst at Monitor Clipper Partners.

He holds a bachelor's degree in international management from the Università Cattolica in Milan, a Master of Science from the ESB Reutlingen, and an INSEAD MBA. He is also a CFA Charterholder. Lorenzo speaks Italian, English and German, and has elementary knowledge of French and Swedish.

Felix Ackermann, founding partner of Evoco AG says: "We rely on a strong team for our unique private equity strategy. Speaking multiple language and possessing a pan-European investments experience expands our strong market standing."

Michel Galeazzi, founding partner of Evoco AG says: "Our clients place the highest demands on the attractiveness of our investments and the quality of our processes. With our team we meet these demands."

Evoco is the European leader in the acquisition of portfolios of private mid-sized companies. Among others, Evoco is lead investor at Plumettaz AG (cable laying machines, Switzerland), Spigol (premium spice manufacturer, France), and reBuy GmbH (re-commerce consumer electronics, Germany). The Evoco team is currently investing from its second fund, Evoco TSE II LP.
