

Press Release

Zurich, 24 April 2019

Evoco invests in portfolio of German mid-sized companies

Evoco AG, a leading pan-European investor in private equity portfolio transactions, invests in portfolio of German mid-sized companies.

With its fund Evoco TSE II LP, Evoco has become the largest shareholder of the industrial holding PartnerFonds AG D-82152 in Planegg / Munich, thereby investing into:

Hehnke GmbH & Co. KG (Steinbach-Hallenberg, Germany), development and production of electrical components; and romwell GmbH & Co. KG (Breitscheid, Germany), development and production of innovative, environmentally friendly packaging solutions based on recycled cardboard.

as well as in several other attractive mid-sized companies.

With this transaction, Evoco indirectly also becomes a significant shareholder on Blue Cap AG, listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Evoco is the European leader in the acquisition of portfolios of private mid-sized companies. Among others, Evoco is lead investor at Plumettaz AG (cable laying machines, Switzerland), Spigol (premium spice manufacturer, France), and reBuy GmbH (re-commerce consumer electronics, Germany). The Evoco team is currently investing from its second fund, Evoco TSE II LP.

Press contact:

Felix Ackermann / www.evocope.com / 8005 Zurich / ackermann@evocope.com / +41 43 268 11 03